

Christina audit: Wise spent $$$$s inappropriately

State auditor Tom Wagner says former Christina School District superintendent Joseph Wise charged thousands of dollars inappropriately on his district credit card. Wagner says Wise had more than 560 transactions on the card in an 18-month period starting in July 2003, totaling almost 76-thousand dollars. 🎧 Audio Here Wagner says Wise had free reign in his spending, and board members allowed it. He is recommending the board do a better job of overseeing spending practices and enforce discipline for violations of policies and procedures.

Copyright © Mar 26, 2007, WDEL/Delmarva Broadcasting Company. All Rights Reserved.
Advanced permission from Delmarva Broadcasting Company required for publication or rebroadcast.